Local Wealth Advisor Tapped for Highest Honor

Sioux Falls, SD - Dennis Thurman, CWS® was recently recognized once again by his brokerage firm, First Allied Securities, Inc., as one of their premiere advisors. One of an elite group of only 50 in a field of 1000 advisors, Mr. Thurman was selected based on his leadership, client service, financial success and adherence to professional practice management.

“Mr. Thurman is an outstanding example of a successful independent financial advisor,” said Adam Antoniadis, President of First Allied. “His business thrives because he provides exceptional service to his clients, he participates in activities that enhance the firm as well as the financial services industry and he takes time to serve his community too.”

Mr. Thurman was also recently awarded the Certified Wealth Strategist® designation, which is administered by the Cannon Financial Institute. “Few financial advisors have experienced the kind of success Dennis enjoys,” said Antoniadis, “and he has worked hard to earn this distinction.”

Mr. Thurman has been with First Allied since 1993 and lives in Sioux Falls with his wife Jamie and their 5 children. Mr. Thurman is a Registered Representative and is also an Investment Advisor Representative through First Allied. First Allied is a subsidiary of Advanced Equities, which is a leading provider of investment management, securities brokerage and venture capital investment banking.

The local First Allied office has been in Sioux Falls for over 23 years with a specialty in wealth and capital management. Mr. Thurman belongs to one of the nation’s top independent financial services organizations administering more than $40 billion in client assets.
